We've had a fun and magical fall so far with our successful Flea Market in September and our Club Parlor Show in October. We will have a full report on the show at our meeting on Nov. 9th.

Speaking of our meeting it is this Wednesday at 7-9pm at the Plymouth Community Arts Council.

- The magic theme for this meeting is "Appearing" Magic. What do you have to show us? What can you or will you make appear? Cards? Coins? Silks? Livestock? We all have something so bring it and show it off.
- Ming is planning to deliver a lecture to the club on Wednesday featuring "How to Dress Like a Magician". I'll bet he has a lot of tips and helpful hints to share.

On a more somber note I think most of you have heard that magician and long-time founding member John Osborn passed away in late October. There will be a gathering this Friday, Nov. 11th at 2:30 pm at the Boneyard restaurant on Plymouth Rd. in Livonia. The officers of the AAMC will conduct a Broken Wand Ceremony. Please feel free to attend even if you didn't know John. This will be an opportunity to learn about his life and career. It is not mandatory, but you can help us with headcount if you register here if you plan to attend the event.

Sadly, we lost a founding member of the club this month, John Osborne.

Ming Louie writes...

John Edward Osborne, 83, of Detroit, Michigan died October 24, 2022. He was a founding member of Ring 210. John was born June 13, 1939 in Grosse Pointe Michigan. He graduated from Wayne State University with a bachelor's degree in psychology and spent his entire life performing as a Magician, Ventriloquist, Medicine Show Pitchman, and Punch & Judy Puppeteer.

He wrote many books on comedy, double talking, and vent dummies. Most of his creative output was sold by Abbotts Magic in Colon, Michigan and is still available today. John was both friend and acquaintance to the greats and near-greats. A young Jeff Hobson once worked as a roady for John. John He worked extensively through the Midwest and Canada performing for many years at the Canadian National Exhibition and the Calgary Stampede along with boiler room tours and as a booking agent.

He was a generous and kind elder statesman among magicians, and represented an earlier era of performer whose entire life was given over to magic and to whom the romance of the road never diminished. He is survived by his older brother Raymond, Raymond's wife Judith, two nephews, a niece, and cousin Mary Lou of Detroit.

A hui hou John.

Club Member Kevin Peshik wrote John Osborne's biography. He provided the below pictures from his archives.

As a reoccurring feature of the Magic Messenger we will highlight a member and ask them to answer a few questions about themselves.

This month the "Spotlight" is on Jim Folkl. Jim is a long time member who has moved a bit further away so unfortunately we don't see him too often. He is a gifted performer with a keen sense of humor and a talent for comedy.

Where did you grow up / where have you lived?

St. Louis MO, Cedar Rapids Iowa, Detroit MI

How did you get started in magic?

My father showed me a few tricks from C Lang Neil's book, The Modern Conjuror

What type of magic do you perform?

Principally stand up. In my youth I did a manipulative silent act.

What is your favorite magic book?

C Lang Neil's The Modern Conjurer (sentimental value)

Who is your favorite Magician of all time?

Levent

Do you have any words of wisdom for newer magicians?

There are no bad tricks. The performer has to make the effect his/her own to elevate it to prominence.

Photos of Jim bring us a blast from the past...

Secretary's Report
By Karl Rabe

Our meeting in October was focused on rehearsal performances for our club show at the end of October.

President Dan Jones announced that the Flea Market was a success. Treasurer Rob Krozal then gave us a run down on the numbers. Overall we Grossed $1,107 and Netted $1,065. Big thanks to those that donated magic for the club's benefit, to those that volunteered to make the event possible and to our Sgt at Arms Don Oesterwind for coordinating to make the facility available at no charge.

Then it was on to rehearsals.

- Phil Mann kicked us off with an effect where spirits shattered a wine glass, under glass. Then a member of the audience was selected and they were levitated in a mysterious comedy levitating skeleton routine.
- Karl & Bill Rabe performed their "Bottle and Glass Trick?". A comedy 2-person multiplying bottle routine.
- Johnny NY performed a multi-card selection and reveal where a half dozen audience members had their cards found.
- Mike Bodgas performed a comedy perverse card selection and reveal.
- Dalton Pittman-Cahill performed a Edgar Alan Poe themed divination with Book Marks.
- Ming and Barbara wrapped up. First Ming regaled us with tales of his Grandfather's magic and produced silver dollars from a silk. The silver dollars vanished and then “flew” into an empty wine glass. Next up was a three ring linking ring routine. For the finale, Barbara was the subject in a tube and sword penetration.

On Friday October 28, 2022 our club held their first Parlor Show. It was a sell-out crowd and a great success. Photos by Pat Rabe, Sean & Tracy Howell, Kelli Blow and Jackie Clark.
