November 2009

President's Corner: Greetings and many happy salutations, my fellow magi! My sincerest apologies for the lateness of this month's newsletter...I was a little late getting Jeff this President's Corner piece. On the business end of things, just a couple quick reminders: The next meeting is our annual 'Hanksgiving' Sale with the one and only Hank Moorehouse. We'll have a quick meeting starting at 7:00 then Hank will take the floor and demonstrate his latest and greatest magic wares. There will also be a committee meeting beforehand at 6:30. We'll celebrate our Holiday Party on December 9th at the Wunderground West, again starting at 7:00. There will be a voluntary gift exchange, and if you bring a gift you'll also receive a gift. With that said, I now have a bit of disheartening news to report regarding my role as President. I have landed a paying restaurant gig at Damon's Grill in Ann Arbor every Wednesday from 5-8 pm. Obviously this overlaps with our Club meetings, and therein lies the problem. I can't say for sure when I'll be able to make another meeting. I'm still going to stay active in the Club, but Wednesday are going to be tricky for me to work around. I'd really like to fan the flames of this restaurant gig to keep it going as long as possible. Marvin was kind enough to pick up the slack for me at the last meeting (Thanks, Marv!) and I'm hoping he or someone else will be able to do the same until a new President takes office. I guess that's it for now, folks. Take care and I'll see you all soon, I'm sure. In Magic Gordon Schott
