October 2009

President's Corner

"Greetings, fellow magi, and welcome to yet another month's edition of the AAMC Newsletter. Just a couple quick announcements: Our October meeting is scheduled for the 14th at 7 o'clock at Faith Lutheran Church. The theme will be Spooky/Mentalism magic in celebration of the upcoming holiday. As was the case in September there will be a committee meeting beforehand at 6:30. Also, we're still a little up in the air regarding the proposed Kids Fighting Cancer show on October 17th in New Baltimore. Jim Placido will have more info to share at the meeting (or maybe even beforehand), but at this point the show is not a sure thing. I was, however, recently contacted by the American Cancer Society regarding an upcoming walk-a-thon they're hosting on the same day (i.e. the 17th) at Gallup Park in Ann Arbor. The event is entitled 'Strides Against Breast Cancer' and they're looking for a few magicians to do walk-around magic from 7:30 - 9:30 am. We'll talk about it more at the meeting, but if you've got some time free that day it would be a fun way to support a really great cause. I guess that's it for now, gang. Hope all is well, and I'll talk to you soon!
